CGRN Review Course

This year the GI/Endoscopy Nursing Review course will be held at Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center in Lebanon, New Hampshire on September 11-12, 2021. Registration for this course has started and you can find more information on the SGNA website.

NESGNA will be sponsoring 2 members to attend this course. More to come on how to apply for this sponsorship.

Just a reminder NESGNA has increased the reimbursement for new certification ($200) and certification renewal ($150). Please see our policies on our website on how to obtain the reimbursement.

NESGNA Online Conferences

This year we will be offering online educational mini conferences through out the year. They are for active members only and are free of charge. Yes, that is correct, no cost to you!

- You will need to register for each conference online via a link on our website.
- Once we receive your registration and confirm your membership, an email with a Zoom link will be sent to you the day before the conference.
- After the conference is complete, we will send you the CEU certificate via email.

The dates for the remainder of the year are:

May 15th, 2021

September 25th, 2021

November 13th, 2021

Here is the link to register for the May conference:
